About this visa

Usually you apply for your visa at the same time and combined with the main applicant's visa application. In some instances, this may not be possible. This may occur where the composition of the family changes after:

- the main applicant has already applied for a subclass 457 or 482 visa and it is still pending a decision
- we have already granted a subclass 457 or 482 visa to the primary 482 visa applicant.

Ask a question

When this occurs and you want to join the primary applicant on their visa, you must apply separately by submitting a visa application in your own right. This is known as subsequent entrant.

When you submit your visa application for a subsequent entrant, you must attach a written letter from the sponsor. This should extend their sponsorship obligation to include you as a family member in the nomination.

This requirement is intended to ensure the primary applicant's employer is aware of all the family members their sponsorship obligations will extend to.

Discuss this matter with the sponsor before lodging your subsequent entrant visa application.

With this visa, you can

- live and work in Australia
- study (you won't receive government assistance)
- travel to and from Australia as many times as you want while the visa is valid
- if eligible, apply for permanent residence (/visas/permanent-resident/overview).

Your visa will come with conditions attached to it. To see your conditions refer to your visa grant letter or use VEVO (/vevo).

Cost

The visa costs

- AUD4,015.00 for the main applicant and each dependant 18 years and over.
- AUD1,005.00 for each dependant under 18 years old.

Concessions apply in limited circumstances.

If the sole applicant on a subsequent entrant application is under 18 years of age, we will charge them the base application charge and not the additional applicant charge.

You might also have to pay other costs for:

- health checks
- police certificates
- Biometrics (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/biometrics).

To see what your visa will cost use the Visa pricing estimator (/visas/visa-pricing-estimator?visa=482). The estimator does not consider the other costs.

Cost concession for eligible Pacific Island and Timor-Leste visa applicants

From 1 July 2026, a lower visa cost applies to eligible Pacific Island and Timor-Leste citizens who lodge a valid visa application.

We will charge eligible applicants the lower visa application cost during the application process in ImmiAccount (https://online.immi.gov.au/lusc/login). We will recognise eligible applicants by the valid passport from the specified countries used in the application when they apply.

Family members are also eligible for the lower visa cost. We base this on the passport of the primary applicant (or visa holder who satisfies the primary visa criteria).

The primary applicant must hold a valid passport issued by one of the following countries:

- Federated States of Micronesia
- Fiji
- Kiribati
- Nauru
- Palau
- Papua New Guinea
- Republic of the Marshall Islands
- Samoa
- Solomon Islands
- Timor-Leste
- Tonga
- Tuvalu
- Vanuatu.

How long you can stay

This is a temporary visa. You can stay in Australia for as long as your visa is valid.

Stay longer

If your visa is expiring and the primary visa holder wants to stay in Australia to work for their existing employer:

- the employer will need to submit a new nomination
- you must apply for a new visa

The primary applicant's employer may be able to sponsor the main applicant for permanent residence through the:

- Employer Nomination Scheme (subclass 186) (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/employer-nomination-scheme-186)
- Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme (subclass 187) (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/regional-sponsor-migration-scheme-187)

The primary applicant might be eligible for other skilled work visas. Use our visa finder to find out options for work (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-finder/work).

Include other family members

Family members who can apply for this visa are those who are members of the family unit of the primary subclass 457 or 482 visa holder.

Family members who apply for the visa must meet our health (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health) and character (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/character) requirements.

Primary visa must have been submitted or decided

Family members cannot be added to a primary visa applicant's 482 visa application after it has been submitted.

A subsequent entrant application should be submitted if the primary visa applicant has already submitted their visa application and you were not included as a family member in their application and:

- their subclass 457 or 482 visa application is undecided as it is still being processed, or
- the primary visa applicant has been granted a subclass 457 or a 482 visa and you wish to join them in Australia

Apply from

You can be in or outside Australia when you apply for the visa, but not in immigration clearance.

If you are applying in Australia, you must hold a:

- substantive visa or
- Bridging visa A (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/bridging-visa-a-010), Bridging visa B (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/bridging-visa-b-020) or Bridging visa C (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/bridging-visa-c-030)

You can be in or outside Australia when we decide on your application.

Travel

You can travel outside Australia and return as many times as you want while the visa is valid.

The time you spend outside Australia does not extend the visa.

We will digitally link your visa to your passport. You will not get a label in your passport.

If we grant you a visa, we will send you a grant notification letter containing the visa grant number. You can use this number to check your visa details and conditions through VEVO (/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions).
