Temporary Graduate visa (subclass 485)

Second Post-Higher Education Work stream

This visa is for Temporary Graduates holding a Post-Higher Education Work, Post-Study Work or Replacement visa with a degree from an Australian institution located in a regional area. It allows you to live, work and study in Australia temporarily.

Step by step

Step 1

Before you apply

Begin these steps as soon as possible after you have resided for at least 2 years in a designated regional area and while you still hold a Temporary Graduate visa in the Post-Higher Education Work, Post-Study Work, or Replacement stream.

You must be in Australia to apply for this visa.

Make sure you have a passport

You need a valid passport for this visa.

If you plan to get a new passport, do so before applying for your visa.

Check your visa conditions

If you have a 'No further stay' condition 8534 or 8503 on your current visa, you can't apply for this visa online. Submit an ImmiAccount technical support form (/help-support/departmental-forms/online-forms/immiaccount-technical-support-form).

To see your conditions see VEVO (/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions/).

Organise health exams

You may need to have health examinations.

Ask a question

Find out the examinations you need (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health/what-health-examinations-you-need) and how you can arrange them. Arranging examinations before you apply may lead to a faster decision.

Get help with your application

Only some people can help you with your application. If you appoint someone to give you immigration assistance they must be:

- a registered migration agent (/help-support/who-can-help-with-your-application/using-a-migration-agent)
- a legal practitioner (/help-support/who-can-help-with-your-application/using-a-legal-practitioner)
- an exempt person (/help-support/who-can-help-with-your-application/exempt-person).

You can appoint anyone to receive documents (/help-support/who-can-help-with-your-application/authorised-recipents) on your behalf relating to your visa matter.

Step 2

Gather your documents

You need to provide documents to support your application.

We can make a decision using the information you provide when you lodge your application. Provide as much information as possible with your application.

Some documents could take some time to get. Have them ready when you submit the application to reduce delays in processing.

Provide accurate information

Provide accurate information. See what happens if you can't prove your identity or don't provide true information (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/providing-accurate-information).

Identity documents

Provide the pages of your current passport showing your photo, personal details, and passport issue and expiry dates.

Also provide:

- a national identity card, if you have one

- proof of change of name.

Documents that prove a change of name include:

- a marriage or divorce certificate
- change of name documents from an Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages, or the relevant overseas authority
- documents that show other names you have been known by.

Residence documents

You need to show us that you have lived for at least 2 years in the period immediately before you lodge your application, in a designated regional area (/visas/working-in-australia/regional-migration/eligible-regional-areas).

This evidence should show us:

- that you lived in a designated regional area for a period of at least 2 years before you lodge your application for the Second Post-Higher Education Work stream visa
- that you continued to live in the designated regional area throughout this 2 year period
- that you continue to live in a designated regional area.

Evidence of residence could include copies of documents in your name such as:

- driver's licence
- utility bills
- mortgage documents or tenancy agreements
- bank statements
- documents relating to your children's schooling.

Work and study documents

If you have worked and/or studied while living in a designated regional area while you held your Temporary Graduate visa in the Post-Higher Education Work, Post-Study Work, or Replacement stream, you must provide evidence that the work and/or study was completed in the designated regional area (/visas/working-in-australia/regional-migration/eligible-regional-areas).

Health insurance documents

You must prove that you have adequate health insurance in Australia. Provide:

- a signed letter from a health insurance provider
- a Medicare card or proof of your enrolment with Medicare
- evidence of health insurance.

Character documents

If requested complete and provide the following forms:

- Form 80 – Personal particulars for character assessment (596KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/80.pdf)
- Form 1221 Additional personal particulars information (331KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/1221.pdf)

You must provide an Australian Federal Police check to be granted this visa. We only accept complete disclosure National Police Certificates (Immigration/Citizenship – Australia Name Check Only) issued by the Australian Federal Police (https://www.afp.gov.au/what-we-do/services/criminal-records/national-police-checks). We do not accept standard disclosure certificates, national police certificates issued by Australian state or territory police, or any other organisation.

You may be required to provide:

- an overseas police certificate from every country, including your home country, where you spent a total of 12 months or more in the last 10 years since you turned 16
- military service records or discharge papers if you served in the armed forces of any country.

For more details refer to character requirements for visas (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/character).

Tell us you are getting help

To nominate someone to:

- receive your correspondence, use Form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient (301KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/956a.pdf)
- provide immigration assistance, use Form 956 Appointment of a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person (308KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/956.pdf).

Upload your written notification or your forms to ImmiAccount (/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/overview).

Partner documents

Provide your partner's:

- identity documents
- character documents
- documents about other family members, if applicable.

If you are married, provide your marriage certificate or other evidence that your marriage is valid in Australia.

If you are a de facto partner, provide proof of your de facto relationship.

Additional proof of a de facto relationships

In addition to documents proving your relationship provide evidence that:

- you have been in your de facto relationship for at least 12 months before you applied for this visa, or
- if applicable, provide evidence that your relationship is registered by a participating Australian state or territory.

Dependants under 18 documents

For every dependant 18 years old or younger who is applying with you, provide:

- copies of birth certificates or the family book showing the names of both parents of all your dependent children
- copies of the adoption paper, if applicable.

Parental responsibility documents

You must get consent for any applicant under 18 years of age to migrate to Australia from anyone who:

- has a legal right to decide where the child lives and
- is not coming to Australia with the child.

They must complete either:

- Form 1229 Consent form to grant an Australian visa to a child under the age of 18 years (276KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/1229.pdf)
- a statutory declaration giving their consent for the child to visit Australia on this visa.

Alternatively, you can show us:

- an Australian court order that allows your child to migrate to Australia, or
- that the laws of your home country allow them to migrate.

Include:

- an identity document that shows the signature and photo of the person who completed the form or declaration, such as a passport or driver's licence
- adoption papers or other court documents if applicable.

Dependants over 18 documents

To include your child who is over 18 in your visa application, they must be:

- over 18 years of age but not yet turned 23, and dependent on you or your partner, or
- over 23 years of age and unable to earn a living to support themselves due to physical or cognitive limitations and dependent on you or your partner.

If your child is likely to turn 23 while your application is being processed, you will need to provide evidence they are dependent on you due to disability.

Provide:

- a copy of their birth certificate to prove their relationship to you
- documents about their other relationships, if applicable
- identity documents
- character documents.

You must also provide proof the child is dependent on you:

- proof of your relationship with the dependant such as a birth certificate or adoption papers
- a completed Form 47a Details of a child or other dependent family member aged 18 years or over (307KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/47a.pdf)
- proof of financial dependency such as bank statements, money transfers and rent receipts
- if the child is aged 23 or is likely to turn 23 while your application is being processed, you must also provide a report from a qualified medical practitioner that states they are dependent on you or your partner due to the total or partial loss of their bodily or mental functions.

Prepare your documents

Translate

Have all non-English documents translated into English.

Provide original and translated documents in your application.

Translators in Australia must be accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (https://www.naati.com.au/).

Translators outside Australia do not have to be accredited. But on each translation, they must include their:

- full name
- address and telephone number

- qualifications and experience in the language they are translating.

These details must be in English.

Note: You do not need to have any documents certified

Scan or photograph

Scan or photograph all documents (English and non-English) in colour.

The scans and photos must be clear.

If a document is more than one page, save it all as one file.

Step 3

Apply for the visa

You must apply for this visa online.

If you are having problems lodging your application, see common issues and error messages (/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/online/common-issues-and-error-messages).

Provide accurate information

Provide accurate information. See what happens if you can't prove your identity or don't provide true information (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/providing-accurate-information).

Apply online

1. Create or login to ImmiAccount (https://online.immi.gov.au/lusc/login)
2. Attach documents
3. Have family applications processed together. Each family member must still have their Visa Application Charge paid and documents attached to their application
4. Pay the Visa Application Charge. We will not process your application until you pay the charge.

When you submit your application you must pay for you and your family members or your application will not be valid.

Note:

- a valid application must be made within the eligibility timeframe. Late applications cannot be accepted.
- applications are received Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST) (or Australian Eastern daylight standard time (AEDST) when applicable.

If you have a technical problem with your ImmiAccount or online application see how to resolve error messages when submitting online (/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/online/common-issues-and-error-messages)

Step 4

After you apply

We will let you know when we have received your application and documents. See what you can and must do after you apply.

Status updates

We cannot give status updates while your application is within standard processing timeframes.

For any information requests, check ImmiAccount (/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/online) .

Travel after you apply

You can be inside or outside Australia (but not in immigration clearance) when we decide on your visa application.

Health exams

Arranging examinations before you apply may lead to a faster decision. To find out the examinations you need and how you can arrange them, see What health examinations you need (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health/what-health-examinations-you-need).

Attach more information

You can attach further supporting documents in ImmiAccount (/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/online).

You should provide any requested information within the specified timeframe. We can make a decision on your application once the timeframe has passed.

Stay lawful

Make sure you stay lawful by holding a valid visa while we process your application.

When you applied for this visa, you were granted a bridging visa. If your current visa expires before we decide on your application, your bridging visa will allow you to stay lawfully in Australia while we process your application.

Do not cancel your current visa. If you do, you will be staying in Australia unlawfully.

Learn more about visa expiry (/visas/visa-about-to-expire).

Add family

You may be able to add your dependent child to your application for this visa before we make a decision.

You will need to:

- complete Form 1436 Adding an additional applicant after lodgement (481KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/1436.pdf) with a clear statement to add the child to your 485 application
- attach all supporting documents including the child's passport, birth certificate and documents to prove your relationship and custody.

Your family can also apply to join you in Australia as a subsequent entrant after the visa is granted. See when you have this visa (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/temporary-graduate-485/graduate-work#When).

Newborn children

If your child is born after you apply but before we make a decision on your visa, then your child is considered to have made the same visa application as you.

You must tell us as soon as possible and give us:

- a copy of the child's birth certificate
- a completed Form 1022 Notification of changes in circumstances (172KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/1022.pdf)
- copies of all supporting documents including the child's passport if available.

Mistakes on your application

Let us know as soon as you can if you made a mistake on your application.

Complete Form 1023 Notification of incorrect answers (168KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/1023.pdf)

Help with your application

Let us know if you no longer want someone to:

- receive your correspondence - complete Form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient (301KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/956a.pdf)
- provide immigration advice - complete Form 956 Appointment of a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person (308KB PDF) (/form-listing/forms/956.pdf).

Upload your written notification or your forms to ImmiAccount (/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/overview).

For more information see Who can help you with your application (/help-support/who-can-help-with-your-application/overview).

Tell us if things change

Things you need to let us know about after you have applied include:

- changes to your phone number, email, address or passport
- changes to your relationship status
- the birth of a child
- you want to withdraw your application.

See: how to tell us if your situation changes (/change-in-situation)

Step 5

Visa outcome

You can be in or outside Australia (but not in immigration clearance), when we decide on your visa application.

If you are a subsequent entrant (family member), you can be in or outside Australia when we decide on your visa application.

If your visa application is approved

If we grant your visa, we will tell you:

- your visa grant number
- your visa grant date

- your visa conditions.

Keep a copy of the email with you when in Australia.

If your visa application is refused

If we refuse your visa we will let you know by email. We will tell you why we refused and whether you have a right to a review of the decision.

We will not refund the application charge if we refuse your application.
