- study (you won't receive government assistance)

Ask a question

- travel to and from Australia as many times as you want while the visa is valid
- if eligible, apply for permanent residence (/visas/permanent-resident/overview)

For this stream of the visa, you must be sponsored to work in an Australian and New Zealand Standard Classification of Occupations (ANZSCO) (https://www.abs.gov.au/statistics/classifications/anzsco-australian-and-new-zealand-standard-classification-occupations/2022) listed occupation in Major Groups 1,2,4,5 or 6. The nominated salary must meet the Specialist Skills Income Threshold.

Your visa will come with conditions attached to it. To see your conditions refer to your visa grant letter or use VEVO (/vevo).

Cost

The visa costs:

- AUD4,015.00 for the main applicant and for each dependant 18 years and over.
- AUD1,005.00 for each dependant under 18 years old.

Concessions apply in limited circumstances.

You will have to pay other costs for:

- English language tests
- health checks
- police certificates
- biometrics (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/biometrics).

To see what your visa will cost use the Visa pricing estimator (/visas/visa-pricing-estimator?visa=482-69).

The estimator does not consider the other costs.

Cost concession for eligible Pacific Island and Timor-Leste visa applicants

From 1 July 2026, a lower visa cost applies to eligible Pacific Island and Timor-Leste citizens who lodge a valid visa application.

We will charge eligible applicants the lower visa application cost during the application process in ImmiAccount (https://online.immi.gov.au/lusc/login). We will recognise eligible applicants by the valid passport from the specified countries used in the application when they apply.

Family members are also eligible for the lower visa cost. We base this on the passport of the primary applicant (or visa holder who satisfies the primary visa criteria).

The primary applicant must hold a valid passport issued by one of the following countries:

- Federated States of Micronesia
- Fiji
- Kiribati
- Nauru
- Palau

- Papua New Guinea
- Republic of the Marshall Islands
- Samoa
- Solomon Islands
- Timor-Leste
- Tonga
- Tuvalu
- Vanuatu.

How long you can stay

This is a temporary visa. You can stay in Australia for the period of time your employer nominates you for up to a maximum period of:

- 4 years, or
- up to 5 years if you are a Hong Kong passport holder.

For further information on recent changes regarding Hong Kong or British National (Overseas) (BN(O)) passport holders read Visa options for Hong Kong - update (/news-media/archive/article?itemId=659).

Stay longer

If your visa is expiring and you want to stay in Australia to work for your existing employer:

- your employer will need to submit a new nomination
- you must apply for a new visa.

Your employer may be able to sponsor you for permanent residence through the:

- Employer Nomination Scheme (subclass 186) (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/employer-nomination-scheme-186)

You might be eligible for other skilled work visas. Use our visa finder to find out options for work (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-finder/work).

Include family

You can include other family members (called 'secondary applicants') in your visa application. The family members you can add will depend on whether you currently hold a subclass 457 or 482 visa.

You have not previously held a subclass 457 or 482 visa

If you have not previously held a subclass 457 or 482 visa, the secondary applicants you can include in your visa application are those who are members of the family unit.

For this visa, your family members are:

- your partner
- your dependent child or stepchild
- your partner's dependent child or stepchild

- the dependent child or stepchild of your or your partner's dependent child or stepchild

You currently hold a subclass 457 or 482 visa

If you currently hold a subclass 457 or 482 visa and you are applying for a subsequent subclass 482 visa, the secondary applicants who can be included in your application are:

- one of the members of the family unit, or
- a person who currently holds a subclass 457 or 482 visa that was granted on the basis that they were a member of the family unit at the time, and is currently one of the following:
    - your spouse or de facto partner
    - your or your spouse's or de facto partner's child or step-child who is not engaged, married or in a de facto relationship, and is:
        - younger than 23
        - aged 23 or older and fully or mostly reliant on you or your partner because they cannot work, due to a partial or total physical or mental disability
        - is a dependent child of your or your spouse or de facto partner's child or step-child

To be granted the visa, secondary applicants must be included in the main applicant's nomination, or provide written evidence that the sponsor who nominated the main applicant agrees that the secondary applicant can be a secondary sponsored person.

Secondary applicants who apply for the visa must meet our health (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health) and character (/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/character) requirements.

You can't add family members to your visa application after it has been submitted.

If you have submitted your visa application and it is being processed by the Department, family members that were not included in your visa application can lodge a subsequent entrant (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/skills-in-demand-visa-subclass-482/subsequent-entrant) application.

Alternatively, if we have granted you a visa, family members may apply to join you in Australia later as a subsequent entrant (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/skills-in-demand-visa-subclass-482/subsequent-entrant).

Apply from

You can be in or outside Australia when you apply for the visa, but not in immigration clearance.

If you are applying in Australia, you must hold a:

- substantive visa or
- Bridging visa A (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/bridging-visa-a-010), Bridging visa B (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/bridging-visa-b-020) or Bridging visa C (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/bridging-visa-c-030).

You can be in or outside Australia when we decide on your application.

Processing times

For an indication of processing times for this visa based on recently decided applications, use the visa processing time guide tool (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-processing-times/global-visa-processing-times).

We assess applications on a case-by-case basis, and actual processing times (/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-processing-times/global-visa-processing-times) can vary due to individual circumstances including:

- whether you have lodged a complete application, including all necessary supporting documents
- how quickly you respond to any requests for additional information
- how long it takes to perform required checks on the supporting information provided
- how long it takes to receive additional information from external agencies, particularly in relation to health, character, and national security requirements

We might ask for more information. We are not obligated to request further information or documents and can make a decision on the information provided. It is your responsibility to ensure all relevant supporting/evidentiary documentation is attached to your application.

Your obligations

You and your family must meet all visa conditions and obey Australian laws.

You must begin your employment within 90 days of:

- entering Australia, if you are outside Australia when grant the visa
- the visa grant date, if you are in Australia when we grant the visa

See which visa conditions might be attached to this visa (/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions/see-your-visa-conditions?product=482-70).

Travel

You can travel outside Australia and return as many times as you want while the visa is valid.

The time you spend outside Australia does not extend the visa.

Visa label

We will digitally link your visa to your passport. You will not get a label in your passport.

If we grant you a visa, we will send you a grant notification letter containing the visa grant number. You can use this number to check your visa details and conditions through VEVO (/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions).

Work

Conditions attached to this visa include that you work in Australia only in the occupation you were nominated for and only for your nominating business or in some circumstances, an associated entity of the business.

Your family can also live, study and work in Australia.
